RECEPTION OF BISHOP WOOD.—The reception of Right Rev. Bishop Wood, which was postponed from last week, took place yesterday at the grounds of St. John's Orphan Asylum, West Philadelphia. There were present many thousands of persons, including delegations of the Philopatrian Society, Conference of St. Vincent de Paul, St. Malaohi Society, Philomatrians and Charles Carroll, and some twenty or thirty others. Two platforms were erected, one for the accommodation of a band of musicians and persons desirous of engaging in innocent amusements, the other for the use of the speakers and the clergy, who were present in large numbers. The speaker's stand was decorated with the American flag and various mottoes of welcome to the Bishop.

Previous to the arrival of the Bishop, the orphans, numbering three hundred and sixty, were assembled in the rear of the Asylum and a song of welcome, was sung by them. A piece adapted to the occasion was also spoken by one of the orphans.

The Bishop * xpressed bis gratification at the warm reception given him by the children and the Shaters, under whose care they had been taught, and commending the children for the manner they had purfermed their part in reciting and in singing the pieces selected for them. At 30 clock the orphans were assembled in front of the main platform, and soon after the Bishop, in company with many of the clergy, was escorted to the stand amid expressions of applause and welcome from the crowd. "Home, Sweet Home," was then played by the band, after which Very Rev. C. J. H. Carter, of the Church of the Assumption, made the address of welcome.

Bishop Wood responded in a brief address.

The Apostolic benediction was then pronounced, and the crowd dispersed.

There were on the grounds tables representing the Cathedral, and St. Augustine's, St. Patrick's, St. Phillp's, St. Francis Xavier's, St. Michael's, St. Paul's, St. Theresa's, St. James', and St. Gregory's Churches. RECEPTION OF BISHOP WOOD .- The reception

SHERIDAN AT GERMANTOWN .- The city's guest, the renowned cavalryman, General Philip H. Sueri-dan, met with an enthusiastic reception last evening at the hands of the citizens of Germantown. dan, met with an embusiastic reception last evening at the nands of the citizens of Germantown.

During the afternoon the General, accompanied by his staff, was driven out to the residence of Thomas A. Newhall. Eag., at Germantown, and remained as the private guest of that gentlen an during last night. For the purpose of testifying their respect to the laise commander of the Fifth Military District, the cluzens of the old borough assembled in large numbers at the town hall during the evening, and an impromptu procession was formed to proceed to Mr. Newhall's residence and welcome the General. A full brass band was engaged and a large number of torches procured; and airer the formation of the procession it marched to the depot, where it awaited the arrival of expected delegations from Philadelphia and other points, none of which, however, arrived.

While waiting at the depot the procession was joined by the members of the Germantown Hose Company, who turned out fully equipped.

About 10 o'clock the line of march was taken up for Mr. Newhall's residence, about one mile distant. A large number of citizens accompanied the parade, and when the crowd had gathered in front of Mr. Newhall's dwelling, loud chers were given for Sheridan, and the band complimented the General with a screnade.

In a short time the General made his appearance serenade.

In a short time the General made his appearance on the porch of the dwelling. He was received with vociferous cheers, and M. Russell Thayer, Esq., who accompanied him, extended a heary welcome on behalf of the citizens of Germantown.

GALLANT ACTS .- Yesterday morning a son GALLANT ACTS.—Yesterday morning a son of Captain W. H. Macomb, United States Navy, seven years old, was rescued from drowning by the bravery and promptness of Robert Fleming and William Tevis, employes of the Navy Yard. The boy had failen from the dock and was struggling in the water, when these men and some others arrived on the spot. The former immediately jumped overboard, followed by the latter, and supported the little feilow until they were bauled up on the dock.

A German lad, nine years of age, leil overboard at Almond street wharf yesterday afternoon. Michael Donahue, who was standing on the wharf, jumped overboard and rescued the boy.

overboard and rescued the boy.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING .- A large meeting of DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—A large meeting of German Democrats was held last evening at Mechenics' Hall, North Third street. The meeting was organized by Mr. Frederick Staake being called to the chair. One Vice President from each Ward and a large number of Secretaries were elected. A preamble and resolutions were adopted, declaring that the doings of the Republican party must inevitably result in the destruction of our Republic, and that the Democratic party only is able to restore the Union of thin thirty-seven States.

Suppen Death .- A man named Kintzing, Sudden Death.—A man named kintzing, said to be from New York, went into Durar's Exchange Hotel last evening, and called for a plate of soup, and while partaking thereof fell from his chair and expired. He had been drinking, and was somewhat intoxicated at the time. It is supposed, however, that be died from disease of the heart. His age was about thirty-eight years. The Coroner took charge of his remains, and will hold an inquest to-day.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC. - The Black Crook is achieving great success at this establishment, and the people are assisting Mr. McDonough to make up his previous losses rapidly. The grand spectacle runs smoothly off each evening now, to the delight of large and inshionable audi-ences. Pepita, the little invorite, is the leading danseuse, and she is nightly received with vehe ment applause. Betty Regal is the pet of the people, and her graceful dancing is always greeted with applause. She is ably supported by Mad'lles Emily Regal, Frank, Anteneno, Franklin, De Vere, and others. In the third act Pepita and Baptistin exhibit their agility and graceful accomplishments in a pedal representa tion of Paganini's Carnivat de Venise. grand march of the Amazons in this act is also unusually beautiful. One of the prettiest divertisements of the spectacle is the mermaid dance in the second act by the Parisienne ballet. To morrow (Saturday) afternoon Back Crook matinee. CHESNUT STREET THEATRE, - Mr. and Mrs. Florence take their farewell cenedit to-night, and offer a very altractive bill. We have no doubt that the house will be crowded. To-morrow evening will be the last of the Florence ences. The usual matinee will be given tomorrow afternoon. On Monday night, Mr. James E. Murdoch will commence an engagement. He will play his invorite role of "Young Mirabel," in The Inconslant; or, Wine Works Wonders. Mr. Murioch is now on his final professional tours At the end of the present season he will retire formally from the stage. His record as an actor, patriot and true gentleman is one of the highest and

ABOH STREET THEATRE.-Mr. E. Eddy takes his first benefit this evening, and will appear in one of his best rotes. Mr. Eddy is a remarkable one of his best roles. Mr. Eddy is a remarkable actor in many ways, and in his line holds a monopoly of his business. No one attempts to play melo-dramatic parts with the force that Eddy throws into them. His style is classic without being heavy, and he has the knack of working up great interest in a part. He is now in the zenith of his glory, and no one should fail to see him in his great characters. Miss fail to see him in his great characters. Miss Hearests frying, a favorite new York actress, will appear with Mr. Eddy to-night. This young lady will soon favor us with a second performance at the Arch, we understand.

Mrs. John Drew announces that she has in reheareal Edmund Falconer's new play of Innisfalen. This piece is now running in England with great success. It is said to be inly equal to Arrah-na-Poque, with less of the frivolous about it, and even more dramatic expression.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—A Midsummer Night's Dream will be repeated again this evening, for the forty-fourth time. It is still very attractive, and has enjoyed an immense run. A more completely beautiful spectacte has never been produced in this country; and it deserves all the success that has been accorded to it. A Midsummer Night's Dream will be given at the matinee to-morrow atternoon, and in the evening for the last time in Philadelphia.

AMERICAN THEATRE.-Mr. Fox continues to furnish a delightful entertainment every even-ing, with John Milligan and the great variety troupe. The American is now the handsomest theatre in town. A matinee to-morrow after-noon for ladies and children.

MUSICAL FUND HALL -Miss Carrie McCafirey's concert, this evening, promises to be a very elite and successful allair. A few tickets are on hand at the various music stores on Chesnut street.

BLIND Tom appears this evening, as usual, at Concert Hall. He gives a matinee to-morrow. General Bethune, Tom's old master, and present guardian, announces that next week will end his sojourn in this city.

PELLADELPHIA OPERA HOUSE.—This gem theatre is crowded every night. The success of Tunison & Co.'s minstrels is already complete. Sam. Sanford, Eph. Horn, Frank Moran, W. Budworth, C. Church, and a host of other noted burn'-corkographers, appear every evening in a well-elected programme, embracing everything admissable in the "Jim Crow drama."

CABNCBOSS & DINEY are still taking crowds of friends on A Hurrah Trip Around the World, No accident insurance is needed for this voyage. THE PHILADELPHIA FIRE COMPANY, No. 18. will mangurate the season at the Horticultural Hall, by a grand soirce dansante, on next Mon-day evening, September 30.

Mr. J. LUTHER RINGWALT gives his admirable illustrated lecture on the "Plains and Rocky Mountains," at Assembly Buildings this evening. MADEMOISELLE FANNY JANAUSCHEE, SI actress of the first eminence, from Germany, will shortly appear at the New Chesnut Street Theatre for a brief season of six nights. She is said to be superior to Madame Adelaide Ristori. She will be supported by a full German company. Miss Janauschek is a Bohemian by birth. Her repertoire includes Medea, Mary Stuart, Deborah, Iphigenia, and others.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Official information is hereby given that a screwpile lighthouse has been erected at James Island, mouth of the Annamessic river, to take the place of the lightvessel now stationed there.

The light will be exhibited for the first time on the evening of October 7, 1807.

The lighthouse stands on the reef extending from the mouth of the river to the lightvessel in the sound, three courtles of a mile distant from each, and in five and one-half feet of water, mean tide.

The involve of the toundation is painted red. The superstructure is painted white.

The illuminating apparatus is a Fresnel lens of the fourth order. The focal plane is $5 feet above ordinary tides, and the light can be seen in clear weather a distance of en miles.

By order.

Freasury Department, Office Lighthouse Board, Washington, D. C., Sept. 23, 1867.

The Spanish Government has to-day declared all the United States foul with epidemic yellow fever and choiers, and yessels coming from ports thereof must perform ten days' quarantine at a foul lazaret. I would suggest that all vessels clear direct for Vigo, where they can quarantine, and then proceed for destination.
